CITY ASSEMBLY HOUSE
SOUTH WILLIAM STREET

GEORGIAN SPLENDOUR IN THE HEART OF DUBLIN

VENUE HIRE

Irish
Georgian
Society

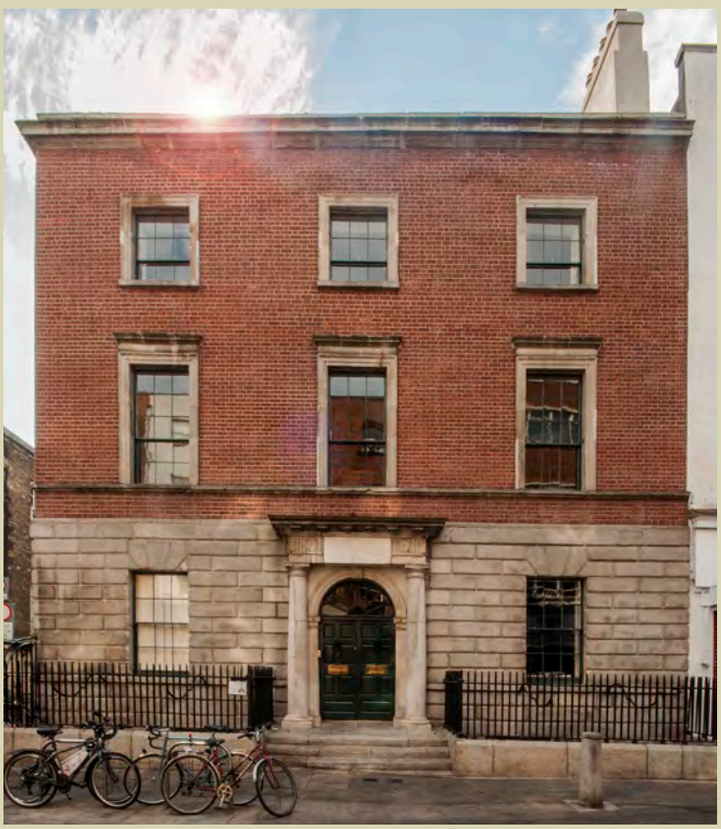

CITY ASSEMBLY HOUSE VENUE HIRE

An elegant 18th-century exhibition and events venue in Dublin city centre

The City Assembly House, located on historic South William Street in Dublin's South Georgian Core, was built between 1765-71 by the Society of Artists in Ireland, as the first public exhibition gallery in Ireland and Britain. It is now home to the Irish Georgian Society, a charitable heritage organisation.

Over the course of its 250 year history the City Assembly House has hosted a wide variety of events and we now invite you to continue the tradition of entertaining and exhibiting here. By choosing the City Assembly House for your event, you are actively supporting the care of this significant 18th-century building and the work of the Irish Georgian Society.

The City Assembly House has three rooms available for hire within walking distance of St Stephen's Green, College Green, Dame, Dawson and Grafton Street.

KNIGHT OF GLIN EXHIBITION ROOM

Built by the Society of Artists in Ireland from 1765-66, this octagonal shaped exhibition room served as the first purpose built public exhibition gallery in Ireland and Britain. The refurbished octagonal Knight of Glin Exhibition Room is the centrepiece of the building, and is named for Desmond FitzGerald, the 29th and last Knight of Glin and longstanding President of the Irish Georgian Society.

With a capacity of up to 90 people seated, it offers a chance for performances, conferences and lectures. With the seating removed the gallery becomes a grand and imposing exhibition space suitable for book and product launches, musical performances, filming, and receptions.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE (VIA LIFT)
AREA (SQ M): 150
DIMENSIONS: AVAILABLE UPON REQUEST
CAPACITY: 110 (STANDING); 90 (SEATED)

WEDDINGS

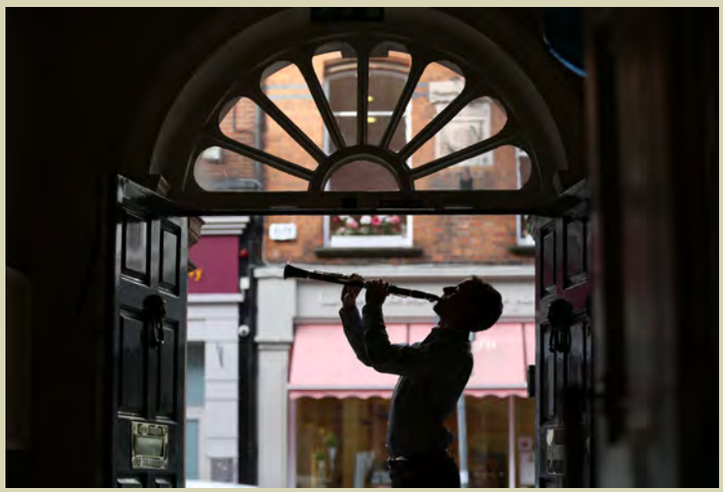

The Knight of Glin Exhibition Room offers an airy and elegant backdrop for your civil service, with Dublin's top restaurants and St. Stephen's Green within comfortable walking distance.

A list of recommended caterers and suppliers is available upon request.

Please note we can only take bookings for civil ceremonies within 6 months of their date.

Please contact cityassemblyhouse@igs.ie for rates

DANIEL O'CONNELL ROOM

Named for Daniel O'Connell, who was elected in the City Assembly House as the first Catholic Lord Mayor of Dublin for nearly 200 years. This room extends across the first floor level and functions as an elegant gallery space and offers a long functional space suitable for board meetings, corporate seminars, training workshops, book launches and small receptions. It also offers a complementary space for events in the Knight of Glin Exhibition Room. The ceiling is decorated with original plasterwork by Charles Thorpe, former Lord Mayor of Dublin (1800-1) and celebrated stuccodore.

NOT WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE
AREA (SQ M) 54.1
DIMENSIONS: 4.4M WIDTH X 12.3M LENGTH
CAPACITY: 50 (STANDING); 30 (SEATED)

AMERICAN ROOM

On ground floor level opposite the Society's bookshop is the American Room, a small meeting room, named for our generous American donors who funded a complete renovation of the room in 2024

This room, overlooking the vibrant South William Street and Coppinger Row area, is suitable for small meetings. This room may serve as a complementary space to other events in the City Assembly House, functioning as a green room or cloakroom.

WHEELCHAIR ACCESSIBLE (VIA LIFT)
AREA (SQ M) 19
DIMENSIONS: 4.4M WIDTH X 4.3M LENGTH
CAPACITY: 10 (SEATED)

BUILDING FACILITIES

Wheelchair accessible lift

Conference call facilities

Bathrooms on each floor

Small kitchenette/serving area

AV & PA system

WiFi access

Load in access from Coppinger Row

Car parking in Drury Street or Brown Thomas car parks

List of recommended caterers and suppliers available upon request

VENUE HIRE

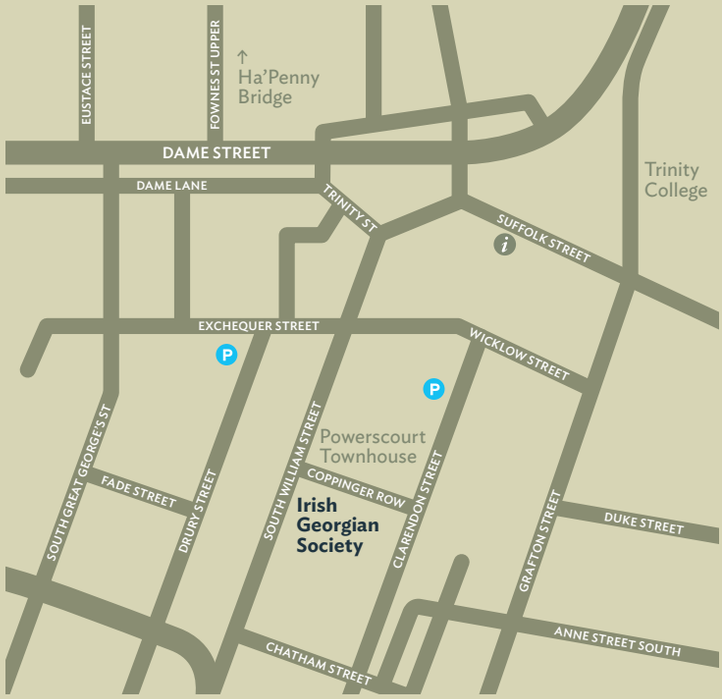

The Irish Georgian Society invites you to view the venue by appointment only.

Contact cityassemblyhouse@igs.ie
or call 01 679 8675

The Irish Georgian Society's office hours are 9.30am to 5.00pm, Monday to Friday.

The City Assembly House was restored and officially reopened on 16 June 2018, and is managed by the Irish Georgian Foundation (registered charity no: CHY 6372).

Photo credits: Gillian Buckley, Zoë Coleman, Stephanie Joy, Lauren Martin Kiely and Nicola Woods

Irish
Georgian
Society

Irish Georgian Society
City Assembly House
58 South William Street
Dublin 2
D02 X751
Ireland

@cityassemblyhouse

Tel: 01 679 8675